About The College

Chandidas Mahavidyalaya was named after the medieval poet of Humanity, Chandidas. It was founded in 1972 at the village of Khujutipara under Nannoor police station in the district of Birbhum with a motto of imparting higher education to the rural youth. It grew out of the long-standing desire and struggle of the people of this underdeveloped area for higher education. From economically and socially backward classes, Realising their plight and aspiration for higher education, some educationists struggled hard to establish this college, defying all odds, mostly financial. The sapling they planted has now branched out in many directions, now blossoming forth with colours and fragrance. The college has since its inception steadily evolved in terms of its human and infrastructural resources. It is affiliated to the University of Burdwan. It breathes natural air of human relations among students and the staff beyond the boundary that prides in it. The college has been accredited by NAAC in 2011 & 2016.
