Programme Specific Outcome

Major 4/3 Years

Academic Session: 2023-2024

After completion of this program students will be:

- Learn the major philosophical problems in the Indian as well as Western tradition.
- They also will be able to assess arguments and philosophical perspectives using critical reasoning and can also express complex thoughts logically & coherently develop a good speculative and critical thinking ability.
- Ability to recognize, express, and analyze arguments in philosophical texts. This is a crucial skill. Students must be able to extract arguments from philosophical texts. In upper division classes across each of our three sub-disciplines of History/History of Ideas, Metaphysics/Epistemology, and Values/Evaluation, faculty teach strategies and methods for extracting arguments from texts.
- Encourage to engage in higher studies and research work.
- Ability to write philosophical essays that have coherent theses and reasonable supporting arguments.
- Develop an understanding of ethical values.
- The quality of not accepting things as given whether they be our traditions or our beliefs and values or anything which is taken for granted and to think about everything with their 'own' minds.
- The inculcation of a belief that this world can be changed for the better via their rational and logical engagement with the various aspects of the world.
