For enrichment of the teachers, scholars and students the Department of Philosophy of Chandidas Mahavidyalaya had organized a national webinar on “Self & Other” on 07.07.2021 through Google Meet at 11:30 a.m. onwards.

In absence of the Principal Professor Subhas Singha Roy, Coordinator IQAC, at first delivered an introductory speech about the webinar before the audience and highlighted the purpose of the webinar.

Thrust Area: Beyond the ‘I-You’ conflict and moral preference.

After completion of the introductory speech honourable speaker of the Webinar Professor Dipayan Pattanayak, Department of philosophy J.U. had delivered a valuable lecture on the topic “Beyond the Binary of I and You”. He had mentioned the value and significance of thinking of human being “beyond the binary of I and You”. As social being why we should think about others in the present situation. Human relationship cannot be limited within the span of “I and YOU” in the broader perspective we have to think of others for the development of the society. After completion of his discussion participants were very interested and asked many questions and prof. Pattanayak replied all.

Porfessor Nilanjan Bhowmik another speaker had presented the topic “Self and Moral Preference “. Prof. Bhowmik had nicely presented the matter of Moral Preference from ethical Standpoint. All our activities more or less related as moral preference by any means. After thr discussion is over question and answer session started. Different questions rose by the audience and prof. Bhowmik answered all of the questions one after another satisfactorily. From the feedback of the students it is clear that they are interested as well as benefited from the discussion. Like Prof. Pattanayak Dr. Bhowmik also mention some research areas related to self and other. The attempt was found to be very successful as the students enjoyed this mode of learning. They requested for more programme like this. The entire participant got participation certificates also. The main outcomes of the programme were-

- Participants can know about some research methodologies and how to use them in their synopsis.
- Participants understand about some metaphysical and ethical values of human life.
- They can understand the importance of humanity.
- They find out some research problems regarding self and other.
- Participants award about the existence of other and how to go beyond the self binary.
- Participants understand that love and humanity is the highest religious aspect of human being

At last Dr. Baikunthanath Pal, associate professor of our department had given vote of thanks to Prof. Pattanayak and Dr. Bhowmik and the participants also. Prof. Barun Ball (HOD) had declared the end of the webinar.

Brief Discussion

Department resolved that students' capacity enhancement programmes would be organized. For this life skill issues would be taken up for discussion. As the environmental pollution and its baneful effect on our lives increases day after day, so issues of sustainable development were selected for deliberation.

On 27th December 2021 our department organized a lecture series on capacity building. All semester students are present on this special series. Prof Mojaffar Hossain Mondal was the resource person of the lecture series.

Contemporary global physical and geographical conditions induced our department to select a very important topic on sustainable development and obviously from an Indian perspective. Which is very needy for our daily life, Prof Mojaffar Hossain Mondal started his lecture on sustainable development and its impact on the national and international affairs, role of the leader of the national and international politics for sustainability of our earth and natural resources, not only that present day celestial body and other resources was affected by the pollution for the aggressive policy of development and luxurious lifestyle, he also talks about the role of the leaders and their aggressive industrial development policy ignoring the biodiversity repercussions can be perceived in our everyday lives.

The questions he raises in his lecture - why we are worried about sustainability, why we would search for others alternative approaches, what is our responsibility to Mother Earth, many natural disasters like flood, drought, cyclones are pertinent.

He discusses the role of government in sustainable development, the various spheres of sustainable development, government policy and government funding of sustainability.

Attitude of the Indian government towards sustainable development is to make India self sufficient, self reliant, natural energetic and hunger free country. At the same time commitment to the environment the Indian government shows on different international platforms and in its environmental policy regimes.

Students from the audience raise some questions and the resource person satisfies them.

Major issues covered

- 1) Environmental Pollution: Causes and factors
- 2) Impact of Environmental pollution
- 3) Ecological thinking: A Brief Overview
- 4) Steps to be taken like:
 - a) Afforestation
 - b) Judicious use of water
 - c) Physical exercise
 - d) Maintenance of personal health and hygiene
 - e) Timely taking healthy food
 - f) Refraining from excessive use of mobile phones
 - g) Engagement in cultural activities to nurture values

We are thankful to the resource person for sparing his valuable time.

All the students present here appear to be very happy to attend this program. They feel that they achieve valuable inputs for their life-style behaviour.

Programme ends with thanks to the resource person.
