7. A Brief Discussion:

This year Independence Day was organized in the college campus to commemorate the historic day. The program was attended by most of the college's staff, both teaching and non-teaching, as well as many of the students of the institution. The students' union helped organize the program with the guidance and supervision of the cultural sub-committee of this college. The drawing competition was part of the day's program where the participants were asked to base their drawings on various important themes and subjects related to the historic and cultural significance of the day. The celebration was a memorable event for all concerned. The Program started with the welcome address given by the Principal and ended with the vote of thanks given by the Convener of Cultural sub-committee.

8. Outcome:

- Provides opportunities to the students to explore their innate potential
- Helps flourish their inner strength and abilities
- Builds confidence of the students
- Increases the sense of responsibility
- Generates greater social skills and awareness
- Helps develop better time management skills
- Minimizes stage fear and helps improve public speaking skills
